On arrival at your chosen venue, you will be kitted out with freshly laundered combat coveralls, full face protection paintball goggles and top of the range semi-automatic paintball gun with 100 paintballs each. You will be given a full safety briefing by an experienced marshal before commencing play. This is a real chance to shake off your day-to-day responsibilities and rekindle your spirit of adventure. There are between six and eight games included in your full day experience, played out within differently themed areas and zones, set up to test your skills of strategy, leadership, navigation and teamwork.
